LIFE INSURANCE.

No. 14, Exchange Street, PORTLAND.

LITTLE & BROTHER are Agents for the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York.

In this Company the whole of the nett profits are divided personally among the insured, and the amount is endorsed on the Policy, and the whole amount is payable on the death of the party to his or her representatives, thus combining the advan- tages of a Saving Institution of the best kind with Life Insurance, by which those who are not wealthy may provide for their families, and capitalists find a safe and profitable investment.

The advantages of such insurance to the individ- ual, to his family and to the community, are obvi- ous. A person 30 years of age, by paying $1 31 annually, may secure $100 to his family should he die within the year, and one in his 40th year may do the same by paying $1 69.

A young man 21 years of age, without capital, by paying $9 00 may obtain a Policy for $1000 for 1 year, and thereby procure means to begin business, purchase tools or a library, or complete an educa- tion. We have already made Policies for such pur- poses.

A creditor may give himself additional security for a debt due him by insuring on a debtor's life.

In England where investments pay not over 3½ per cent. per annum, the profits to assured have been very great, as the following will show, viz: a person at the age of 30 effected insurance on his life for $1000, at the expiration of 30 years by the death of the insured, the accumulated profits to- gether with the sum insured, gave his heirs about $3000. In this Company the investments (already large) are now paying 5 per cent., and the probabil- ities that the results with this office will be equally favorable, if not more so.

No person having a family who is able to save $1,00 per month, should delay a moment, to obtain a Policy at this office.

Any information that may be desired, can be ob- tained by calling on the subscribers.

BANGOR.

Whig Celebration of the Fourth of July at Levant.

The Whigs of Levant with a few of their neighboring friends had a joyous celebration on the 4th inst. It was a genuine exhibition of the whig spirit of '44, and an earnest of what they intend to do in the approaching campaign The Oration was pronounced by your fellow towns- man William Paine, Esq. and while it did hon- or to his head and heart, (which are all whig,) it lighted up the old fires of 1840, in the bosom of many whigs present. The services were,—

Singing and music

Prayer by the Rev. T. B. Robinson.

Reading of the Declaration of Independence by Isaac Case.

Doct. Isaac Carr was the President of the day. The company were enlivened by short speeches from several gentlemen.

The entertainment provided by Capt. E. B. Stackpole was of the very best kind, to which the partakers bore ample testimony.

Nothing stronger than lemonade enlivened the services of the table.

The following are the regular and volunteer toasts. There were many spirited volunteer toasts we have not been able to collect which may yet be furnished.

Regular Toasts.

The day we Celebrate—The birth day of our liberties—and the dawn of hope to an oppressed world.

Our Country—"The great northern light," guiding the nations to prudence and glory.

Our Union—Only less black than that of Ju- das will be the hurt and infamy of the wretch who may try to mar or destroy it.

Our Farmers, Mechanics and Manufacturers —May they take care of themselves—their la- bor and business by holding on to the system of protection, begun by the whigs of 1789, and sustained by those of 1844.

The Patriots of the Revolution—Glorious old whigs we will ever as we do, follow in their footsteps.

George Washington.

The first Congress of 1789—Full of the Pa- triots who won our independence on fields of blood, and constructed our Union by wisest Councils. And they commended it to the peo- ple by the passage of an act, among other things, "for the encouragement and protec- tion of manufactures."

The acting accidental President—Unlike every body but himself, and so unlike himself that his acts of to-day negative his identity of yester- day.

Texas—The last refuge of runaway locofoco defaulters, and the forlorn hope of a desperate party, seeking to regain their old allies to help them to power and plunder.

Maine—As in '40—she can—she will.

The Ladies—Almost all whigs, all for union, but none for annexation; the worthy daughters of the old whig wives and mothers of the Rev- olution.

Theodore Frelinghuysen—The man, that even Amos Kendall, the prince of liars dare not tell lies on.

Henry Clay—The unrivalled orator—the matchless statesman—the purest patriot, the next President of the United States.

Volunteer Toasts.

By A. Sanborn—The Orator of the day—A faithful, able and eloquent Whig.

By Wm. Paine—The whigs of Levant; May they do their best in the coming election to maintain the independence of American indus- try for the next four years

A. S Kimball—Martin Van Buren: His own party for the sake of a pasture (Texas) to feed in themselves, have turned him out to grass like Nebuchadnezzer of old.

By Wm. Bradbury—The Clay of Kentucky. As analyzed by the people, the right materials for American patterns.

By Alexander Webb—Daniel Webster: The favorite son of New England, and the defender of the Constitution.

By Leonard Stoddard—James K. Polk: What has he done, that he should have our votes?— Echo answers, what has he done?

Geo. V. Edes—The Administration of John Tyler—Going! going!! gone!!!

By A. Musician—Henry Clay—Whose prin- ciples are neither too shark nor too flat, but in perfect unison with the feelings of every true hearted whig.

By Gen. Isaac Hodsdon—Tecumseh and Cass —Polk'd out of the confidence of the Locofoco party—the whigs in November next will poke out the man who poked them.

By D. Sanborn—The Hon George Evans: The able statesman—The accomplished orator, the champion of the north, and Whig, whom of all others, the whigs of Maine delight to honor

By a Stranger—Shepherd Cary—The small- est, and the strongest Pol-Kat among the Locos of the East.

By J. O. Tilton—The Clay of Kentucky—a sure remedy for the poison of polk root.

By P. F. Stevens—American Protection— May it be upheld by the American people

By Jesse Russ—The true Whig Policy—Pro- tection to American labor — encouragement to home manufactures: a sound currency, a gov- ernment which can take care of itself, and at the same time take care of the people.

By John B. Bates—Henry Clay, The lion of the West—not to be Polked by a Tennessee Pol-kat

N. M. Stevens—The Destructionists of the Locoloco party—The whigs will take care of 'em.

By A H Norton—The American Union—with Henry Clay for pilot, and Theodore Frelinghuy- sen for ensign, clear the track.

Opening of a Temperance Tavern in En- Enfield.

Mr. Editor—The "glorious Fourth" was a day of unusual interest to the temperance peo- ple of Enfield and vicinity We opened and ded- icated a Temperance Tavern where every thing for the comfort and convenience of his guests, will be provided by our worthy fellow citizen, John Treat Esq Mr Treat had given a general invi- tation to his neighbors and friends, and also to the friends of the temperance cause, to unite with him on that day in opening a Temperance House The call met with a general response. The peo- ple began to collect quite early in the morning; and by noon, about four hundred men and wo- men, had assembled. They came from all the adjacent Towns. A company, with a field piece, under the command of Capt. Turner, came from Lincoln; and contributed much to the interest of the occasion, and entitled themselves to the gra- titude of Mr Treat, and his many friends. A large delegation also came from Burlington and Lowell. They were met on the way by a large procession from Enfield who with flags and mu- sic, went out and escorted them in. The sign was painted in Bangor by Messrs Marston & Willard. An American Eagle to the very life, with talons upholding the Flag, was painted on the sign. Out of his mouth, issues the words.— "HELP THE GOOD CAUSE OF TEMPER- ANCE."

The workmanship of the sign is highly credi- table to the skill of the artists. The Ladies lent a helping hand in raising the sign as they are ever ready to help on any good object.

Being a little too ardent, they gave too strong a pull, and broke the rope. This was speedily adjusted, and the sign was fixed in its place where it will greet the eye of many a weary traveller.

At one o'clock, the company partook of an excellent collation prepared by our liberal host.

We then returned to the school house and lis- tened to interesting addresses from Elder Al n Messer, of Enfield and the Rev. Mr. Mc- Donald of Lincoln, and several other gentle- men. The Meeting continued until about 5 o'clock, P M The people then returned to their several homes with hearts full of gratitude for the hospitalities of the day, and elated with the hopes that ere long every Tavern sign in our Country which greets the eye of the traveller, shall have inscribed on it the word, "TEMPER- ANCE." A Washingtonian society was formed in the morning having about 50 names

At the close of the exercises in the afternoon, other names were added, among which were the names of several who had until then been ad- dicted to drinking immoderately

I wish to say a word as to the cause of Mr Treat opening a Temperance Tavern. About a year ago, the President of the Washingtonian Society, in Enfield, violated his pledge, and re- lapsed. That had a bad effect, and some time last winter, a rum tavern was opened near by Mr. Treat's. Mr T. made several offers to the proprietors of the rum tavern to induce them to stop the sale of liquor. He offered to buy the liquor to be kept solely for medicine,—to pay them all the profits they could make on the sale of them; but to no purpose. He also offered the use of his sign so long as they would keep a Temperance house. This offer they declined saying "temperance men as well as others would leave them." Finally as the last resort, Mr. T. determined to try the experiment of overcoming "evil with good," and he has finally triumphed The rum sellers have concluded to stop the sale of liquor in their tavern, and to ruin no more of their fellow citizens with this destructive mater- al. There was one other rum tavern in Enfield, and on the next day Mr T. called on the land- lord and his wife to urge them to leave off the trafic. After a long and pleasant conversation, assurance was given that the sale should cease soon in that tavern. Thus our people are in a fair way of getting rid of one of the greatest of all evils, Intemperance. Rejoice with us.

ENFIELD.

Aroostook Whig County Convention.

The Whigs of Aroostook County met at the Clay Club room in Houlton, on the fourth day of July, in- stant, agreeably to previous notice, for the purpose of nominating County officers; and organized by the choice of Bradford Cummings, Chairman, and Z. P. Wentworth, Secretary

The following County officers were nominated.

For County Commissioner, Nathaniel Blake of Letter D.

For County Treasurer, Jotham Donnell, Jr. of Houlton.

For County Attorney, Z. P. Wentworth of Houl ton.

Voted to recommend William Butterfield of We- ton, as a candidate for Senator to be supported by the Whigs of this Senatorial District at the next September election, subject to the nomination of a Senatorial Convention.

The following resolves were unanimously adopt- ed:—

Resolved, That Henry Clay is the man for the people—That we honor him for his private virtues and his public integrity; and that no exertions on our part shall be wanting to secure his election.

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in the honesty and capacity of Theodore Frelinghuysen; and we pledge him our hearty support.

Resolved, That we approve of the Tariff of 1842 and will do what we can to defeat the election of those pledged to its destruction.

Resolved, That the Whigs of the other counties have a right to expect much from Aroostook, and their expectations shall not be disappointed.

Resolved, That we approve of the nomination of Edward Robinson; and will give him the united strength of the Aroostook Whigs.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the assump- tion of the State debts (as falsely charged upon the Whigs) and more especially to the assumption of the debts of Texas.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be tendered to J. W. Garnsey, Agent of the Steam- boat "Charter Oak," for his liberality in giving the Aroostook delegation free tickets of passage in that boat from Bangor to Augusta, and other civilities tendered to the delegation.

Voted, That the proceedings of the Convention be published in the Bangor Whig & Courier.

BRADFORD CUMMINGS, Chairman

Z. P. Wentworth, Secretary.

"Ezekiel Polk, the grandfather of James K. Polk, the ex-Governor of Tennessee was a most recreant tory. He exhibited through the war a most vacil- lating and undecided course of conduct—which he finally crowned from mere motives of avarice, by taking the oath of allegiance to the British Govern- ment. We would refer all those who wish to know the particulars of this subject, to all the soldiers of our Revolution who now reside in Mecklenburg"

That Black Whig Tariff of 1842.

Last Friday a Whig Merchant in this place, bought one shearing of a flock of Sheep from a Lo co-Foco, for which he paid $175. Last year the same merchant paid the same man for the shearing from the same sheep only $125. What a wicked Black Tariff that is, running the Farmers Labor ers and Mechanics' One fact like this outweigh all the judicious Tariff arguments that can be pro- duced.

☞ We notice that the Boston papers report the arrival at that city of the ship Chile from Valparaiso and among the passengers reported is the name of Miss Burton of this city. Seeing this name has awakened in our minds a train of reflections touching the rapid changes of the last twenty years. At that time Mr James Burton, Jr., the father of Miss Burton was the publisher of the Register the only paper then printed in this part of the State, his office being the foundation upon which has been built the present establishment of the Whig & Courier, and the Register being the germ of the Bangor Courier. Some of the first subscribers to the Register have continued upon the books of the office to the present time and have by prompt payments made the credit side of the successive Ledgers balance the debit side.

Mr Burton died several years since leaving a widow and several young children, who by great industry and prudence have maintained themselves very respectably and won the sincerest regard of all their acquaintance and secured a multitude of warm hearted friends. By all these the return of Miss Burton will be hailed with pleasure. She has been residing with an uncle at Valparaiso for about seven years and now returns to visit the home of her childhood and receive the caresses of her mother and an affectionate family.

How rapidly these changes seem to take place; and yet, alas! we are reminded by them and by the stray white hairs that begin to show themselves upon our head that we too are subject to change, and amidst the various changes of life, must soon pass away.

Great Sale of Timber.

The land Agent of this State sold at Auction on Wednesday in this city, Permits to one team, on each, of fifteen townships of land, at from $1,64 to $2,51 per ton The average price per ton amounted to $2,07. He also sold permits on several small parcels at prices varying from $1,26 to $3,51 per ton. The forfeiture in each of these cases is $50.

Previous to 1840 permits had never been sold for more than $1,00 per ton but since then permits have been sold at prices varying from $1,25 to $2,04, and at these prices there have been fair operations. If any cause can be assigned for this increase in the price of stumpage it is probably to be found in the fact of the opening of the St John river and the opening of roads into the Aroostook country by which supplies may be conveyed into the lumbering swamps

☞ We learn from the Frontier Journal that at a celebration of the Fourth of July at Baring Mr Caleb Nodding and Mr Eli Sprague were most shockingly mutilated by the accidental discharge of the brass cannon of which they had care. Mr Nodding, in addition to other flesh wounds, had both of his arms blown off, and one eye blown out. He was alive at the last account, but it is not at all probable that he will long survive. Mr Sprague was dreadfully burnt in the face, and had some three or four of his fingers blown away. It is thought that he will recover.

☞ We have unaccountably neglected for several days to remark that the Portland Daily Advertiser has been enlarged, dressed in new type and appears beautifully. It is an able advocate of the Whig cause and this evidence of its success is cheering.

The Boston Evening Journal has been greatly improved in its appearance by the use of new and elegant type It is now one of the most beautiful as it has long been one of the most useful on our exchange list

☞ The whigs of Massachusetts propose to have a great State gathering of the people at Bunker Hill on the eighteenth day of September next Let the Whigs of Maine make every necessary preparation to send up to their true hearted brethren a good report of their State election.

Changes.

The Democrat denies the statement of a correspondent of the Whig, that Mr Woodbury's speech made three Clay men of locos and calls for the proof. Proof, ha! What would you give Isaac for an affidavit signed by the very men? What would you give to see the names of three good men and true who have always been locofocos, appear in print renouncing that doctrine and declaring for better things? Are you anxious to see your friends all desert you? But, prithee friend, patience, and in due season the ballot box will make the disclosure. Names are not of so much consequence as numbers and to comfort you for not telling names we will assure you, that the statement was true, that the number was correct, and further than that, the number has already been added to. Now deny this, and keep denying it, for you know a departure from the truth tenaciously adhered to is much safer than to waver in the belief thereof.

☞ Mr Wyatt has for several days past furnished our people pleasant entertainment at the Theatre building by a Dramatic Temperance exhibition. He advertises the same for this evening which will conclude his engagement in this city Of course all will wish to attend.

☞ The Belfast Signal states that at the loco convention in this city on the Fourth, the People were invited to a collation out doors, but that the big bugs were careful to take a generous, warm dinner in the Bangor House. The leaders, it seems did not like cold meats and crusts, furnished gratis.

☞ If every man is not well clothed it will not be for the want of suitable materials offered at prices to suit all reasonable desires. Dost doubt? Then examine our advertising columns and you will find four clothing establishments noticed, at either or all of which the outer man may be so adorned as to insure a passport to the very tip of society, and make one feel uncommonly comfortable! If you wish to attend church to-morrow in the best possible style, why see to it and buy your trowsers to day!

Louisiana Election.

We shall soon have returns from the election in this State. It seems to be conceded on all sides that this election will go for Texas and annexation.—Last year all the four members of Congress elected were Loco Focos. The Texas fever is strongest in this State and will doubtless keep the State in the old position, now. Our friends are sanguine that whatever may be the result at the summer election, when many whigs are absent, that in the fall she will come out clear for Clay.

☞ Littell's Living Age No. 9 containing the choicest selections from the current periodical literature of England, has been received. Copies may be purchased at the Bookstores in this city.

☞ The "incidental protection" to which Gov Polk is favorable is a horizontal duty of 20 per cent, which he thinks 'will afford sufficient protection to the manufacturers, and all they ought to desire, or to which they are entitled.'

Mr Woodbury's Speech.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

I too was an attentive listener to the remarks of the Hon. Levi Woodbury on the 4th, and was much surprised to hear him come out so plainly and pointedly against the present Tariff, representing that there is not a single redeeming feature connected with it, and he is evidently not only opposed to the Tariff of 1842, but to any discriminating duties, as he constantly spoke in favor of a Tariff simply for revenue with a duty of twenty or twenty five per cent. as need should be. I had supposed such were his views, but that he should so unhesitatingly present them to a New England audience, especially that he should assert that the interests of Maine were sacrificed by the present Tariff, to which can be legitimately traced the great improvement in all branches of industry during the last two years, proved to my mind most conclusively that, however sincere he may be, or however desirous to benefit the "dear people," he has not a very high opinion of their intelligence. And such arguments as he used to sustain his positions—"If a man buys an axe or shovel, he must pay for two. If a woman buys a pair of flat irons she must pay as much for the use of them as for the articles themselves." On asking a Democrat from one of the back towns, whom I know to be an honorable and intelligent man, what he thought of Mr W's address, he answered after hesitating for a time, that Mr W. was a man of talents—that he said many good things and much that was true, but, added he, we must have a Tariff and one that will protect our own industry. On referring to the statement made as to iron, salt, and various other articles, he frankly admitted that he did not recollect of ever being able to purchase any of the articles in ordinary use referred to cheaper than now, even when there was little or no Tariff, and he did not understand as a matter of fact, why the Tariff could have such an effect as was represented. The above is but a single case, but unless I much mistake as to the intelligence of the great mass of the people, it is precisely what most of them in this State would say—and I shall be slow to believe that there are many who think for themselves, who will be ready to embrace even from Mr Woodbury, great man as he is, and strong pillar as he may be considered in the Democratic edifice, doctrines and statements which their own experience has taught them are directly in opposition to well known facts. But I rejoice that the issue between the Whigs and Democrats as to a Tariff is definitely made up, for I suppose no one will deny that the gentleman who spoke on the fourth promulgated the true Democratic doctrines, by authority, and such as will be carried out by their standard bearers, should they be elected. I have only to say farther, should the people be so blinded by the 'ipse dixit" of those who have held high stations, and whom they have been accustomed to look upon as great men, as to elect Polk and Dallas who advocate measures directly hostile to their interests, every good man and true may well exclaim, "God save the State of Maine." B

Louisiana Election.

The election, which was for Members of Congress; Members of the Legislature, and Delegates to a State Convention for the revision of the Constitution, took place on, the 1st inst.

In the Parish of Orleans, comprising the three Municipalities of the city of New Orleans, six Whigs and four Democrats are elected to the Assembly. The highest Whig candidate received 1164. votes the highest Democrat, 1174. Seven of the ten Delegates elected to the Convention are Whigs.

The Picayune says,—"At some two or three of the wards the polls were closed the greatest part of the day, the judges, on one side, refusing to take the ballots of those who held Elliots certificates, while the opposite judges would not receive any others until they were admitted."

CONGRESS.—The first Congressional District comprises the 1st and 3rd Municipalities of N. Orleans, and the parishes of St. Bernard and Plaquimines, John Shdell, the Democratic candidate, appears to be re-elected in this district without opposition. A year ago his majority in the district was 347.

Second District. Whig candidate. Bannon G. Thibodeaub—Loco candidate, Alcee Labranche, the present incumbent His majority in the district, (which comprises the 2d Municipality of New Orleans and eight or nine small parishes,) was a year ago, eighty-eight. The 2d Municipality then gave 111 Whig majority; now, about 190 majority. The probability is that Labranche is re-elected; but the fact cannot be stated definitely until the returns from the other parishes come in.

Third District. John B. Dawson, Loco, re-elected without opposition.

Fourth District. Not heard from.

In the present Congress, the entire delegation from Louisiana (four members) is Loco. They would have been regularly elected in July, 1842: but the apportionment bill not having then been passed, the election was deferred till July, 1843.

A year ago the city of New Orleans gave a Loco majority of 63 votes; now about a tie. In November, 1840, (Presidential election) a Whig majority of 933. In July 1842, (Gov) a whig majority of 251.

The Mormons.

The St Louis Republican of the 1st instant has advices from Warsaw to the evening of June 28, but they only confirm previous accounts.

The slaying of the Smiths appears to have been a wanton and unprovoked murder. Governor Ford had returned from Nauvoo and gone to Augusta, taking Carthage in his way, and removing thence all the records and public documents.

Carthage was entirely deserted, for fear of an attack from the Mormons, of which, however, there seems to have been no real danger. The people of Warsaw were under arms, and had sent away the women and children.

Beauties of the Sham Democracy. The opinion of Doct Bates.

The Skowhegan Clarion contains the following letter of Dr. James Bates late a loco member of Congress. Truly the Doctor is right when he says that locofoco when understood is "shorn of its locks;

To my Democratic Friends in Somerset:

Gentlemen:—Permit me in this public manner to express the gratitude I feel for the generous support you gave me in the canvass on the 27th ult. Want of success increases rather than diminishes my obligations. Many will float, on what they are made to believe a popular current, where one will breast a thousand falsehoods and a host of official dignitaries.

Perhaps the arrangement made at Augusta last winter by members of the Legislature, backed by showers of gratuitous newspapers and quires of Commissions from the Secretary's office, forwarded by our Senator, should have induced me to retire from the contest. But when I saw in the field the almost entire corps of county officers, deputy sheriffs, and private individuals scouring the county to "derect the current of public opinion;' and the Sheriff and several of his Deputies—Clerk of the Courts and his son—County Attorney—County Commissioners and their sattelites, on the ground at the Convention (many of their delegates) to confirm the previous movements, I determined the people should have an opportunity to see by whom and by what means their nominations are to be regulated

The people have an undoubted right to permit the county officers to make their nominations and to declare it public opinion. How long they will tolerate it is for them to decide.—This mode was adopted eight years ago and has obtained several times since.

The team is prety strong, but not invincible; let the people once understand the subject, and it is "shorn of its locks.'

The principles of democrrcy are eternal, and cannot be changed by the actions of good or bad men. These principles I beg you to support at all times regardless of me or mine·

I will not ask you (in the elegant language of my competitior) to drive the whigs where the devil drove the hogs.' But if it can be done honorably, without the stimulas of the ardent, I ask you to give them such a "Waterloo defeat" as my party has just given me.

Of the forty-five hard fisted, sober headed gentlemen who gave me their support in the conventiontion, I shall feel proud while I live It is with such men I would live or die

Accept assurance of my esteem and thankfulnees. JAMES BATES.

Norridgewock, July 4, 1844.

Brave "Young Hickory"!"

The Tennessee papers tell a tale not very creditable to "Young Hickory's," (alias Polk-stalk's) chivalry and patriotism during the last war. When an order came for a draft on the Militia of the county in which Mr Polk then resided, he very hastily removed his quarters to another county, and thereby escaped the glories and perils of war Gov. Jones, pending the late canvass, having heard of this martial feat of his competitor, charged him with it, and the fact was not denied'

The U. S. Treasury.

A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Mercury says:—"I learned to-day that the receipts at the Treasury Department exhibit a degree of prosperity in the finances of the Government almost beyond parallel. For the last four or five years the weekly receipts rarely exceed $250,000, whereas they now seldom fall below $900,000, and at times exceed a million!" So much for the Whig Tariff.

We regret to learn that Capt Samuel Parks, a worthy and industrious man, of Prospect, was suddenly deprived of his life a few days since, at Calais. He was standing on the wharf looking at his vessel, and attempted to go on board, but fell between the vessel and wharf and was crushed to death. [Belfast Advocate.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSAM OF LIVERWORT. PRICE REDUCED.

DR. TAYLOR'S Balsam of Liverwort, from 375 Bowery, New York—for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, Asthma, Soreness of the Chest, Pain in the side and Breast, raising of Blood, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, and all those affections of Throat and Lungs which are a source of so much suffering and unarrested, so often terminate in Consumption—this remedy is highly and justly distinguished. It is purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its effects upon the system, and can be taken in the most delicate cases, with safety as well as utility. Physicians, aware of its medicinal properties, and witnessing its effects even in extreme and in some instances apparently almost hopeless cases, often prescribe it in their practice, both as a palliative and a remedy, and with the Medical Faculty generally it has met with great approbation.

CONSUMPTION.—The following remarks were taken from the last number of the Medical Magazine:

"The surprising effect produced by the genuine Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in consumptive cases, cannot fail exciting a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world. We have so long considered this disease (consumption) incurable, that it is difficult to credit our senses when we see persons, evidently consumptive, restored to health. Yet it is a fact of daily occurrence."

Certificates from the highest and most respectable sources, or persons who have been either greatly relieved by it, or entirely recovered from affections of the Lungs and Liver, could be furnished in abundance, but we insert only the following

CERTIFICATE.

Liver Complaint and General Debility. I was given up by two physicians, and told to prepare for death. I was so weak I could not raise my hand to my head. I was in this low state, when a friend sent me a bottle of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, from 375 Bowery, and before I had used up the bottle, I was able to sit up in bed. By the further use I have completely regained my health.

GEO. WELLS, 23 John-st.

For a common cold and cough, this is one of the very best remedies ever discovered.

N. B. There is a spurious and counterfeit article afloat; therefore be careful to get the genuine, which is from 375 Bowery, N. Y., and is for sale by

WHITWELL'S JAUNDICE

TEMPERANCE BITTERS

OR THE PEOPLE'S BEST REMEDY.

FOR the cure of Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Debility, Worms, etc. etc.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

Do you wish to promote the health of your customers? Do you wish to confirm their good habits, and afford them the highest satisfaction?

Do you wish to make fifty per cent on your investment without the smallest risk? Then purchase at least one box of Whitwell's Temperance Bitters.

Evidence of the good qualities of this compound.

Dr. Hooper, in his Medical Dictionary, in allusion to a prominent ingredient in these Bitters, says—"It has been found very effectual in restoring digestion, expelling flatulence, and removing costiveness, so common in sedentary life.

Dr. Lettsom, the most scientific physician in Europe says, on the same page—"In hysterical affections, it affords more vigor and relief than any other article before known."

Dr. Bigelow, in the sequel to the U. U. Pharmacopen says, page 311, in allusion to the same article It is one of the most valuable of the Bitter Tonics It has an invigorating effect on the stomach and bowels, and is peculiarly serviceable in dyspepsia."

These Bitters contain as large a proportion of the Extracts of

SARSAPARILLA AND TOMATOES,

As any bitters in the United States, and rank immeasurably above all others in existence for creating an appetite, reviving the spirit, and strengthening the whole system.

Why will you pay a high price for an article, when you can have every medicine suitable for such diseases to be found in the four quarters of the globe, for one quarter of the price. Orders have been received from nearly all sections of the United States, from British America, and the West-Indies. This is not surprising, for to prefer any inflammatory Alcoholic compound to this mild and pleasant decoction, would prove the consumers far behind the age in good taste, good habits and even civilization.

☞Dealers will find it for their interest to purchase directly from the proprietors.

Sold at the low price of 25 cents per pint bottle, or $2 per dozen.

Dr. D. Jayne's FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have used it for Asthma, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Chronic Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soreness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the LUNGS and BREAST, can and do attest to its usefulness. BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, Bronchitis, are Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a Spitting up of Phlegm or Matter, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels, which run thro every part of the Lungs. The Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.

It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three large doses will cure the CROUP, or HIVES of children, in from 15 minutes to an hour's time, It immediately subdues the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with CONSUMPTION, have been restored to perfect health by it.

If this Expectorant be given in the commencement of PLEURISY, INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS, or in acute RHEUMATISM, in doses sufficiently large, so as to cause a little nausea for some time, going to bed and covering up warm, it will produce perspiration, and subdue these affections at once.

PRICE $1,00.

Tonic Vermifuge.

WORMS IN CHILDREN. Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as Worms. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they imitate the symptoms of almost every other complaint, they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. They are not only a cause of disease themselves, but by their irritation aggravate all other diseases, wandering from one part of the body to another, winding themselves up into large balls, and obstructing the bowels, and frequently the throat, causing convulsions, and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in Dr. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which will very soon destroy the worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them. PRICE 50 cents.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM.

This is one of the most efficient, pleasant and safe compositions ever offered to the public, for the cure of the various derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT; and in the above and following diseases, it really acts like a charm, viz:

Dysentery, Diarrhea or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, Cholic, Griping Pain, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Water-brash, Pain or Sickness of the Stomach, Vomiting, Spitting up of food after eating, and also where it passes through the body unchanged; Want of Appetite, Restlessness and Inability to Sleep, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Hysterics, Cramp, Nervous Tremors and Twitchings, Sea Sickness, Faintings, Melancholy and Lowness of Spirits, Fretting and Crying of Infants; and for all Bowel Affections and Nervous Diseases.

PRICE 50 cents.

Hair Tonic.

NO EXCUSE FOR A BALD HEAD. Since the important discovery of Dr JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC, every one may, if they choose, preserve their hair from falling off, or if already bald, may, with certainty, have their hair restored again by a faithful and persevering application of this valuable HAIR TONIC.

Please to read without prejudice the following communication, which, in addition to hundreds of others equally respectable, should remove the doubts of every reasonable person of the uniform and singular efficacy of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

HAMILTON, Feb. 15, 1840.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: I cannot say my hair is restored, but I can say that it appears to be in as rapid a process of restoration as could reasonably be expected. I had not finished the first bottle, before a decided change was manifest over the bald part of the head, to which it was applied. A new growth of fine glossy hair, much like that of an infant, appeared, and has continued to increase, and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently commenced upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the Tonic from the first, and from this cause I apprehend the effect is at present less than it otherwise would have been.

I began the use of the Tonic with little or no faith that it would ever be successful on my head, though I felt entire confidence in your statements of what it had done for others; and I was as much surprised as delighted when I saw the effect. You recollect the appearance of my head when in your office. I assure you the hair has been nearly, if not quite, an inch long all the times I have had it cut, on those parts which were nearly destitute of any when you saw me. It was, however, very fine, though quite thick. I am flushed with sanguine hopes of final success, in the diligent use of your Tonic, which, amidst all the hair humbugs which have been advertised in the papers, I am constrained to believe is what it claims to be, and that it will make the hair grow, and no mistake, at least on some heads

Jayne's Sanative Pills.

These Pills are an excellent, mild and safe purge at all times, and are exceedingly useful in Dyspepsy and obstructions of the Liver. Persons taking them can eat and drink as usual, without fear of injury; and, what is of infinite advantage, making the use of mercurial preparations, so frequently used in derangements of the stomach and liver, unnecessary.

These Pills may be taken at all times, and are beneficial in nearly all diseases. They have long been a favorite prescription of the proprietor for all obstructions of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, Uterus, and all other organs of the body—Inflammatory, Intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice and Liver Complaint. For Dyspepsy they are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the stomach, and producing healthy action in that important organ. They are very valuable in diseases of the Skin, and for what is commonly called "impurity of the blood"; also for Female Complaints, Costiveness, &c. &c.—and in fact every disease where an Aperient, Alterative or Purgative medicine is required.

☞Four fifths of the numerous and distressing cases of DYSPEPSY POSITIVELY CAN BE CURED by a persevering use of this valuable SANATIVE.

They are expressly prepared to be used as an Aperient, when purging is necessary, while using his Expectorant, and for the removal of obstructions in the Liver, which are often attendant on some of the diseases of the Breast.

Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia.
